

I am writing in support of the Indiana Law stopping telemarketing. It is inconceivable that you would preempt such protection. It got so bad here that we bought all kind of gadgets to stop and screen and they still get through. They will not comply with request to remove your name from their data base. They lie and are often rude. "please leave Indiana's law in place